Book #1 in the series, teaches patience and planning ahead. Willow can't wait for the circus to come to town! Along her way to the much-anticipated show, she is distracted by treats and fun she can't refuse, and ends up running out of time and money and misses everything. Luckily, she's given a second chance and learns that sometimes we need to say no to good things to end up with something great!

The second book in the series, Marvin is a bit too focused on getting new things for himself (mainly a super galactic toy robot that he simply must have!) instead of helping his friends, teachers and soccer team. He receives some wise advice from a neighbor and ultimately learns that it's people and relationships that make us happy, not material possessions.

The latest book from Shine Bright Kids tells the story of Wanda who is in serious need of an attitude adjustment. She struggles to understand why everyone in her town goes so crazy over the Annual Rubber Duck Days Festival! She refuses to participate in any of the events until she realizes that she is the only one not having fun. After a pep talk from the parade mascot, she learns that being positive is a choice that makes everything better, not to mention a whole lot more fun!
